

RICHMOND IN BRIEF.

Fifty News Items Cleaned All Over the City by Dispatch Reporters.

INTERESTING PERSONAL POINTS.

A Cyclorama Showing the Movements of Our People and Their Friends—Gossip Bits About Matters of a General Character.

Miss Evelyn Hasker is visiting friends in Gloucester county.

Miss Ella Tanner is visiting her brother, Mr. Charles Tanner, in Staunton.

Miss Alice Caxey Hutherford is visiting Mrs. H. D. Oliver, of Norfolk.

Miss Sadie Hill, of Brambleton avenue, Norfolk, is visiting friends in the city.

Mrs. M. A. Megginly, of Portsmouth, is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. E. Smither.

Mr. S. M. Belline, of Bedford county, was in the city yesterday on business.

Miss Annie Merrill left Friday to visit friends and relatives at Frankfort, Ky.

Miss Eva H. Tyler is visiting the Misses Alley, on High street, Petersburg.

Miss Jessie Ryan left yesterday for Manhattan Beach, L. I., to spend the summer.

Judge Collyar Brown, of Bedford county, was in the city yesterday on business.

Miss Eddie Besker is visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. H. Henley, in Powhatan county.

Mrs. W. Gordon McCabe is the guest of Mrs. N. Osborn, on Sycamore street, Petersburg.

Mr. Samuel Kaufmann returned to the city yesterday from a brief northern business trip.

Miss Anna Smith, of 127 west Clay street, has gone to Caroline, and will return in September.

Miss May Bonner, loving leaves tomorrow to visit friends in Weldon and Durham, N. C.

Rev. Horace Lucy will preach at the Third Presbyterian church this morning at 10 o'clock.

Miss Fannie Utz, of Church Hill, left the city last week for the mountains, to visit relatives.

Judge T. Ashby Wickham, of Henrico, has appointed Dr. William V. Croxton County Coroner.

Mr. Alfred S. Cohen will spend Sunday with friends in Charlottesville, returning to the city Monday.

Rev. W. J. Holmes, who has been at the Cold Sulphur Springs for two weeks, is improving slowly.

Misses Sadie Lanier and Mamie Berry, of Petersburg, are visiting friends and relatives in this city.

Mr. Watson Y. Arrington, vice-president of the Everett Wadday Company, is summing in Nova Scotia.

Mrs. R. S. Smither is spending the summer with her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Bell, of Norfolk, Va.

The services at the Masonic Home this afternoon will be conducted by Rev. W. H. Beauchamp.

Miss Irene Pleasanton, who has been visiting Mrs. Harris Domian, of Petersburg, has returned home.

Rev. Dr. William E. Hatchet will leave to-morrow morning for the session of the Appalachian Association.

Mr. Andrew Pizani, Jr., left the city Friday for Clifton, Va., where he will spend his summer vacation.

Mr. W. C. Arrell left Thursday morning for Hotel Bel-Air, New Castle, where he will remain about five weeks.

Misses Maud and Florence Newman, of 122 west Clay street, are visiting relatives and friends in Louisa county, Va.

Miss Fannie La Plante leaves Richmond today to visit friends and relatives in Louisa and Spotsylvania counties.

Mr. Joseph W. Wheat recently wrote a clever poem, which has been set to music by Professor Jacob Reinhardt.

Miss Mary M. Loving of 75 west Main street, will leave on Monday to visit friends in Raleigh and Durham, N. C.

Miss Rose Noss, of 282 east Marshall street, left Monday for 12th and Main and 12th and Madison, Federal street, Lynchburg.

Miss Bell Gordon, daughter of Rev. E. G. Gordon, Fulton, Mo., is the guest of Miss Eugenia Gordon, 10 south Fifth street.

Miss C. Oglehan has lately arrived here from New York, and is staying with her sister, Mrs. Ward, No. 120 west Clay street.

The "Oakwood" Line Enjoined.

Judge Lamb of the Chancery Court has, upon the application of Dr. Lewis M. Cowardin and Mr. Canape, remanded by Judge L. L. Lewis, grand jury, to the Traction Company from running in front of their property on Oakwood avenue. The document is to be filed in the office of the Traction Company.

When one of the cars on the Main street line was passing along Louisiana street, it struck a telephone pole, turning into Williamsburg avenue, and must have burned out the armature or otherwise damaged the machinery so that the car could not proceed, and had to be taken to the sheds by another car.

There will be a called meeting of all the members of Fulton church this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mr. Harrison, the pastor, requests that all the members be present, as the business is of very great importance.

Miss Rosa Duffy, who has been visiting relatives by the seashore, has returned. She was accompanied on her return by her cousin, Miss Agnes O'Connor of West Point.

Mrs. Covington, who lived in Darbytown, just below here, died last Sunday evening, and was buried Tuesday evening.

Miss Ida Spears and Emma Brown, of Fulton, are visiting Mrs. Morris Miller, in Baltimore.

The Richmond Chemical Works began operations last Monday, after undergoing extensive repairs.

Captain Jesse Sykes, of North Carolina, is here on a visit.

Little Miss Maggie Malvey, daughter of Mr. James A. Mulvey, of Portsmouth, Va., is visiting her cousin, Mrs. James E. Gray, No. 46 Donegan street.

Dr. J. Claude Elson and wife, of Madison, Wis., who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reams on Graham street, will leave today for Nelson county, on a visit to Dr. Elson's former home.

Mr. Thomas O'Connor left Wednesday for Toronto, Canada, on a pleasure trip. He will take in Niagara Falls and Buffalo, N. Y.

Mr. Herman S. Reams, of the Richmond Cedar Works, left this week on a tour of the northern cities, on business connected with the mechanical department of the company.

Mr. G. D. Smith returned Wednesday, after a very pleasant visit to North Carolina.

Mr. Hiriam Saxon and wife, delegates to the Dover Association from Mile-Creek Baptist church, report a delightful time at the meeting.

Mr. M. A. Bright, of Newport News, is up on a visit to his sick mother, on Seventy street.

Miss Bessie Carter, who resides on Nicholson street, is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mr. John Whittle, who lives on Nicholson street, and who has been sick, is convalescing.

Mr. Norman Jordan, who lives on Nicholson street, and who has been very sick, is better.

James, the youngest son of Mr. J. A. Black, is still very ill with the fever, which he has had for the past week.

Garnett, the 14-year-old son of Mr. T. H. Weimer, continues very sick with the fever.

250 Alarm Clocks, worth $1.50 each, sale price.

Mr. Herman S. Reams, of the Richmond Cedar Works, left this week on a tour of the northern cities, on business connected with the mechanical department of the company.

Mr. G. D. Smith returned Wednesday, after a very pleasant visit to North Carolina.

Mr. Hiriam Saxon and wife, delegates to the Dover Association from Mile-Creek Baptist church, report a delightful time at the meeting.

Mr. M. A. Bright, of Newport News, is up on a visit to his sick mother, on Seventy street.

Miss Bessie Carter, who resides on Nicholson street, is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mr. John Whittle, who lives on Nicholson street, and who has been sick, is convalescing.

Mr. Norman Jordan, who lives on Nicholson street, and who has been very sick, is better.

James, the youngest son of Mr. J. A. Black, is still very ill with the fever, which he has had for the past week.

Garnett, the 14-year-old son of Mr. T. H. Weimer, continues very sick with the fever.

250 Alarm Clocks, worth $1.50 each, sale price.

Mr. Herman S. Reams, of the Richmond Cedar Works, left this week on a tour of the northern cities, on business connected with the mechanical department of the company.

Mr. G. D. Smith returned Wednesday, after a very pleasant visit to North Carolina.

Mr. Hiriam Saxon and wife, delegates to the Dover Association from Mile-Creek Baptist church, report a delightful time at the meeting.

Mr. M. A. Bright, of Newport News, is up on a visit to his sick mother, on Seventy street.

Miss Bessie Carter, who resides on Nicholson street, is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mr. John Whittle, who lives on Nicholson street, and who has been sick, is convalescing.

Mr. Norman Jordan, who lives on Nicholson street, and who has been very sick, is better.

James, the youngest son of Mr. J. A. Black, is still very ill with the fever, which he has had for the past week.

Garnett, the 14-year-old son of Mr. T. H. Weimer, continues very sick with the fever.

250 Alarm Clocks, worth $1.50 each, sale price.

Mr. Herman S. Reams, of the Richmond Cedar Works, left this week on a tour of the northern cities, on business connected with the mechanical department of the company.

Mr. G. D. Smith returned Wednesday, after a very pleasant visit to North Carolina.

Mr. Hiriam Saxon and wife, delegates to the Dover Association from Mile-Creek Baptist church, report a delightful time at the meeting.

Mr. M. A. Bright, of Newport News, is up on a visit to his sick mother, on Seventy street.

Miss Bessie Carter, who resides on Nicholson street, is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mr. John Whittle, who lives on Nicholson street, and who has been sick, is convalescing.

Mr. Norman Jordan, who lives on Nicholson street, and who has been very sick, is better.

James, the youngest son of Mr. J. A. Black, is still very ill with the fever, which he has had for the past week.

Garnett, the 14-year-old son of Mr. T. H. Weimer, continues very sick with the fever.

250 Alarm Clocks, worth $1.50 each, sale price.

Mr. Herman S. Reams, of the Richmond Cedar Works, left this week on a tour of the northern cities, on business connected with the mechanical department of the company.

Mr. G. D. Smith returned Wednesday, after a very pleasant visit to North Carolina.

Mr. Hiriam Saxon and wife, delegates to the Dover Association from Mile-Creek Baptist church, report a delightful time at the meeting.

Mr. M. A. Bright, of Newport News, is up on a visit to his sick mother, on Seventy street.

Miss Bessie Carter, who resides on Nicholson street, is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mr. John Whittle, who lives on Nicholson street, and who has been sick, is convalescing.

Mr. Norman Jordan, who lives on Nicholson street, and who has been very sick, is better.

James, the youngest son of Mr. J. A. Black, is still very ill with the fever, which he has had for the past week.

Garnett, the 14-year-old son of Mr. T. H. Weimer, continues very sick with the fever.

250 Alarm Clocks, worth $1.50 each, sale price.

Mr. Herman S. Reams, of the Richmond Cedar Works, left this week on a tour of the northern cities, on business connected with the mechanical department of the company.

Mr. G. D. Smith returned Wednesday, after a very pleasant visit to North Carolina.

Mr. Hiriam Saxon and wife, delegates to the Dover Association from Mile-Creek Baptist church, report a delightful time at the meeting.

Mr. M. A. Bright, of Newport News, is up on a visit to his sick mother, on Seventy street.

Miss Bessie Carter, who resides on Nicholson street, is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mr. John Whittle, who lives on Nicholson street, and who has been sick, is convalescing.

Mr. Norman Jordan, who lives on Nicholson street, and who has been very sick, is better.

James, the youngest son of Mr. J. A. Black, is still very ill with the fever, which he has had for the past week.

Garnett, the 14-year-old son of Mr. T. H. Weimer, continues very sick with the fever.

250 Alarm Clocks, worth $1.50 each, sale price.

Mr. Herman S. Reams, of the Richmond Cedar Works, left this week on a tour of the northern cities, on business connected with the mechanical department of the company.

Mr. G. D. Smith returned Wednesday, after a very pleasant visit to North Carolina.

Mr. Hiriam Saxon and wife, delegates to the Dover Association from Mile-Creek Baptist church, report a delightful time at the meeting.

Mr. M. A. Bright, of Newport News, is up on a visit to his sick mother, on Seventy street.

Miss Bessie Carter, who resides on Nicholson street, is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mr. John Whittle, who lives on Nicholson street, and who has been sick, is convalescing.

Mr. Norman Jordan, who lives on Nicholson street, and who has been very sick, is better.

James, the youngest son of Mr. J. A. Black, is still very ill with the fever, which he has had for the past week.

Garnett, the 14-year-old son of Mr. T. H. Weimer, continues very sick with the fever.

250 Alarm Clocks, worth $1.50 each, sale price.

Mr. Herman S. Reams, of the Richmond Cedar Works, left this week on a tour of the northern cities, on business connected with the mechanical department of the company.

Mr. G. D. Smith returned Wednesday, after a very pleasant visit to North Carolina.

Mr. Hiriam Saxon and wife, delegates to the Dover Association from Mile-Creek Baptist church, report a delightful time at the meeting.

Mr. M. A. Bright, of Newport News, is up on a visit to his sick mother, on Seventy street.

Miss Bessie Carter, who resides on Nicholson street, is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mr. John Whittle, who lives on Nicholson street, and who has been sick, is convalescing.

Mr. Norman Jordan, who lives on Nicholson street, and who has been very sick, is better.

James, the youngest son of Mr. J. A. Black, is still very ill with the fever, which he has had for the past week.

Garnett, the 14-year-old son of Mr. T. H. Weimer, continues very sick with the fever.

250 Alarm Clocks, worth $1.50 each, sale price.

Mr. Herman S. Reams, of the Richmond Cedar Works, left this week on a tour of the northern cities, on business connected with the mechanical department of the company.

Mr. G. D. Smith returned Wednesday, after a very pleasant visit to North Carolina.</